

Reporting of Fraud, Waste and Abuse

The Bridge is committed to conducting its operations with honesty and integrity. The agency expects all individuals to comply with the letter and spirit of all applicable laws and regulations.

As such, it is the responsibility of ALL Bridge individuals to report suspected fraud, abuse or other improper activity relating to the operations of the agency, whether committed by Bridge employees, vendors, contractors, clients or others.

If you believe someone has committed an act of fraud and/or abuse related to any part of services provided in our programs you are obligated by LAW to report it.

Individuals are protected from retaliation for making good faith reports of suspected fraud, abuse or improper conduct. If the reporter makes his/her identity known, the Compliance Department will make all reasonable efforts to protect his/her identity, except if disclosure is necessary to investigate the issue.

Reports should be made to the Compliance Department and may be made anonymously.
